The Town Council shall prepare and cause to be advertised, within thirty (30) days following the date of receipt by the Town Council of the certificate of the Board of Special Election, a Notice of Adoption described in Subsection 11 hereof, in two (2) issues of a newspaper having general circulation in the Town.

(b) The form of the bonds or certificates of indebtedness and the thereunto attached coupons, if any, the time or times of payment, the interest rate, the classes, the series, the maturity, the registration, any callable or redeemable features, the denomination, the name thereof and any other relative or appurtenant matter thereto shall all be determined by the Town Council after said Special Election.

(c) The bonds may be sold at either public or private sale as determined by the Town Council. If the bonds shall be offered for public sale, the Town Council, shall first advertise a notice of sale inviting bids thereon, in a manner to be prescribed by the Town Council, at least five (5) days before the date of sale, on which date of sale bids therefor will be accepted. The bonds shall be sold to the winning bidder whose bid offers the lowest true interest cost to the Town out of all bids timely submitted.

(d) With respect to its budget, and in fixing the rate of tax, the Town Council shall provide a sinking fund for the payment of interest and principal of said bonds or other indebtedness at the maturity or maturities thereof.

(e) The faith and credit of the Town shall be deemed to be pledged for the due payment of the bonds or other indebtedness and interest thereon issued under the provision hereof, when the same have been properly executed and delivered for value and there shall be no limitation upon the amount of taxes which may be raised by taxation for the payment of interest on and principal of any bonded indebtedness of the Town, whether incurred before or after the passage of this Act.

(9) The bonded indebtedness shall not at any time exceed in the aggregate the total sum of twenty-five per centum (25%) of the value of the real property situate within the limits of the Town as shown by the last assessment preceding the creation of the said indebtedness. There shall be no limitation upon the amount of ad valorem taxes collected to pay the principal of and interest on any bonded indebtedness incurred pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(10) In anticipation of the issuance of said bonds at any time after a Special Election approving the bond issue, the Town Council may issue and sell bond anticipation notes of the Town at either public or private sale for not less than par plus accrued interest, if any. Said notes may be renewed from time to time by the issuance of and sale of new notes. Said notes shall bear interest at a rate determined by the Town Council to be fair and reasonable. All such notes shall mature and be paid not later than two (2) years from the date of issuance. The aggregate principal amount of all notes outstanding at any one time shall not exceed the aggregate principal amount of the notes authorized by the Special Elections approving such notes. Said notes shall be redeemed at par plus accrued interest, if any, prior to their maturity if the Town Council shall have reserved the right to do so by an express provision in the note or notes. The principal and any interest due on said notes may be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds authorized by this section. (12) The Town Council may refund any or all outstanding bonds or other indebtedness of the Town at the maturity thereof or in accordance with any callable feature or provision contained therein but refunding of such bonds or other indebtedness of the Town shall not require the procedures set out in this Section 33 so long as the outstanding principal amount of the refunding bonds or other indebtedness does not exceed the aggregate principal amount, plus accrued interest and redemption premium, if any, of the outstanding bonds or indebtedness to be refunded, plus the costs of the refunding, and shall be enacted by resolution of the Town Council. 55 Del.
